Quia vero est quoddam illud gratia cuius reliqua operantur est finis. Felicitas est huiusmodi. Ergo. Consequentia patet ex conditione et ratione finis. Minor de ratione eius est quod reliqua gratia ipsius operantur. Patet quia omnia ab homine fiunt propter felicitatem. Et sic felicitas est ultimus finis omnium operationum humanarum.

Ro communis quia sicut usus rei melior est possessione rei quia usus rei est finis possessionis et ideo in usu rei convenientius potest ro aptum quam in ipsa possessione et ita in rebus exterioribus multum refert huius rei ad primo usus. Sic etiam in proposito non parum differt ponere felicitatem in habitu virtutis et in operatione secundum virtutem quia operatio est usus virtutis et propter hoc operatio secundum virtutem est melior ipsa virtute. In operatione ergo secundum virtutem ponitur felicitas. Ex quo sequitur quod magis est dicere felicitatem esse operationem virtutis quam ipsam virtutem quia operatio est finis habitus. Et quod dicit Eustratius sicut thezaurus absconditus est vanus qui homini nihil confert ita habitus virtutis est vanus et otiosus si opera non sequuntur ex eo.
